2008-2009 Guidelines and Application

KentuckyHistoricalSociety

Sponsored by the Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commission and the Kentucky Historical Society. The Kentucky Historical Society is an agency of the Kentucky Tourism, Arts and Heritage Cabinet.

Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Grants Program

In commemoration of the Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial (2008-2010), the Kentucky Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commission and the Kentucky Historical Society will offer program grants of up to $2500. These grants are available to museums, historical organizations, educational institutions, city and county governments, and other community groups. These grants are available for a variety of Lincoln-themed projects such as educational programming, exhibitions, community celebrations, and publications. The Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commission will have a strong role in determining what applications are funded.

Why commemorate Lincoln in Kentucky?

Abraham Lincoln's ties to Kentucky run deep. In addition to being born here, Kentucky was home to Lincoln's wife, best friend, law partners, and business associates. Although he left the Bluegrass State as a young boy, these relationships with Kentuckians played a major role in forging his personal and political life. Lincoln's connections to Kentucky and his appreciation of the importance of the commonwealth to the Union cause further strengthened Lincoln's bonds to the history of this state. More than forty counties in Kentucky have Lincoln and Civil War sites that tell the story of the man and the conflict that shattered a nation.

What will the Lincoln Bicentennial mean to Kentucky?

The national celebration of the Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial will begin on February 12, 2008, at the Abraham Lincoln Birthplace National Historic Site near Hodgenville. This national kick-off will bring the world's attention to the commonwealth. The bicentennial will continue through February 12, 2010, with special events planned in Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Washington D.C., and states throughout the country.

What types of projects will be considered for funding?

It is the goal of the Lincoln Bicentennial Commission and the Kentucky Historical Society to make this funding available to all state sites. The interpretive possibilities include:

- Lincoln's Kentucky Connections: Who were the Kentuckians that played a major role in Lincoln's life?
- Families During the Lincoln Era: What was family life like at your site during this time?
- Kentucky's Political Culture: The state of the union, the slavery question, and African American enlistment in the military were important political issues of Lincoln's day. How does your site tie-in to these topics?
- The Civil War: The unique stories of Kentucky's Civil War sites and museums are important to the Lincoln Bicentennial Commission and the Kentucky Historical Society.
- Slavery: Many of Kentucky's historic sites and house museums have a story to tell related to slavery in the state.

There are many other interpretive possibilities. Please contact Chris Goodlett at 502-564-1792, ext. 4453 or chris.goodlett@ky.gov to discuss the appropriateness of your project.

The Lincoln Bicentennial Commission has adopted the following Themes and Outcomes to guide the programming of the Bicentennial:

Lincoln Bicentennial Themes

- "I, too, am a Kentuckian:" Lincoln's Family, Friends, and Associates--Kentuckians who influenced Lincoln's personal development
- "His was the only line of salvation for our country:" Conscience, Politics, & Legacy—Kentucky's role in developing Lincoln's character, politics, and ideals
- "I hope to have God on my side, but I must have Kentucky:" Lincoln and the Civil War—the effect of Lincoln's policies on Kentucky before, during, and after the Civil War
- "Now He Belongs to the Ages:" Lincoln's Relevance Today—highlighting the message of Lincoln for the 21st century
